Expert Will Speak Here

Evangelist Harold D. Champlin, director of Gypsy Work in America for the Assemblies of God Church, will be guest speaker this Sunday evening, June 19, seven o'clock, at the Waleria Assembly of God, the pastor, Rev. Edward L. Hughes has announced.

Ninety per cent of the Gypsies, sometimes called the "most forgotten people," are always on the move and cannot read or write, which makes it almost impossible to establish a church among them, the Rev. Mr. Champlin reported. In spite of these handicaps, some 4,000 have been reached with the Gospel and over 500 have been participants in the Charismatic revival that is evident in many of the major churches of the nation, the evangelist said.

Colored pictures, customs and traditions, and some very rare and valuable curios will be presented in the service. Waleria Assembly is located on the corner of 244th and Hawthorne. The public is invited to this unusual service, the pastor, the Rev. Mr. Hughes stated.
